

DRANE MISSING SINCE LAST MONDAY FRIENDS MUCH CONCERNED OVER ABSENCE.

Despondency and Worry Over Financial Matters Noted Prior to Disappearance.

Ed Drane, aged 42, a resident at the central Y. M. C. A. for several years, has been missing since Monday, and friends are apprehensive, with the hope that he is somewhere and greatly worried before his departure.

Mr. Drane is well and favorably known here, and it is feared that harm has befallen him. It is understood that he was concerned over financial matters, hence one reason for his despondency.

Ed Drane came to Chattanooga a number of years ago, and during the greater part of his residence here he has roomed at the Y. M. C. A. He has been in the employ of the Southern Express company for a long time.

He is well educated and a talented musician. He acted as pianist at a number of the Sunday afternoon meetings that were held at a downtown theater under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian association.

He weighs about 140 pounds, is five feet, eight inches tall and dresses well. He is rather bashful, his friends are anxious for word concerning him.

LABOR STANDS FIRMLY BY PRESIDENT'S VIEWS

Resolution Containing Principles for Establishment of Peace Discussed.

London, Sept. 20.—(11:50 a.m.)—Representation of labor at the peace conference which ends the present war, the holding simultaneously of a world labor congress and a formal protest against the continuation of the war for any secret treaty aims not in accordance with President Wilson's "fourteen points" are the principal declarations of the international labor and socialist conference, in session here today.

All of these principles were contained in a resolution which was submitted during the early part of the week by Samuel Connors, president of the American Federation of Labor.

TRAINING STATION UNDER QUARANTINE

Health Authorities Take Steps to Prevent Spread of Spanish Influenza.

Great Lakes, Ill., Sept. 20.—The Great Lakes naval training station is virtually under a complete quarantine today, after the 50,000 jackies here, in an effort to prevent the spread of Spanish influenza, a wave of which is sweeping the north shore of Lake Michigan.

Ray Milton Menelsohn, a Chicago Jackie, died yesterday from the malady, and hundreds of new cases have been reported in the vicinity. Among the jackies 2,000 are said to be victims.

Similar steps have been taken at the Northwestern university in Evanston, south of here, where seven cases have already been reported.

Health departments of the northern suburbs of Chicago are co-operating with the health officials of the city in an effort to prevent the disease, which has been spreading southward, from getting a footing in Chicago.

LEMON JUICE TAKES OFF TAN

Girls! Make bleaching lotion if skin is sunburned, tanned or freckled.

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of Orchard White, shake well, and you have a quart of the best freckle, sunburn and tan lotion, and complexion beautifier, at very, very small cost.

Your grocer has the lemons and any drug store or toilet counter will supply three ounces of Orchard White for a few cents. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day and see how freckles, sunburn, windburn and white disappear and how clear soft and white the skin becomes. Yes! It is harmless.

DROPSY Specialist

Usually gives quick relief; have entirely relieved many seemingly hopeless cases. Swelling and short breath soon gone. Offer gives entire relief in 15 to 25 days. Trial treatment sent by mail FREE.

DR. THOMAS B. GREEN
Succesor to Dr. H. H. Green's Son, Box N.
Chattanooga, Ga.

ALMOST BLIND FROM DIZZINESS

This Virginia Lady Tells of Constant Suffering From Dreadful Backaches, Permanently Relieved by Cardui.

Norton, Va.—Mrs. E. S. Clouse, of this place, writes: "In about 1901 I seemed to get in bad health. I had been married about a year. I called in Dr. —, of —, who treated me. — and gave me medicine, which didn't do me any good. I suffered agony for about 4 months and felt I must have some relief, for I was so bad off that I was really unable to be up out of bed during all that time.

I could hardly walk, every step was painful and a drag. I would be almost blind from dizziness. I had dreadful backaches that never ceased, and severe pains. I read of Cardui in the Birthday Almanac and friends urged me to take it. I used one bottle with such beneficial results that I gained hope of recovery. After the use of 2 or 3 bottles, I felt so much better that I was able to get up and go about my work. My improvement was steady and after about the 3rd or 4th bottle, I was entirely cured and the cure has been permanent. For the past seven years I have had perfect health and my work has been a pleasure.

Try Cardui, the woman's tonic, for your troubles. It is safe, reliable, and of proven merit. All druggists. (Adv.)

WAR REVIEW TERSELY GIVEN BY THE TWO LEADING NEWS SERVICES

(International News Service.) Desperate resistance is being made by the Germans on the Meuse battle line, but the British and French have made more important gains during the past twenty-four hours in the great flanking movement against St. Quentin and Cambrai.

The British advanced a mile, taking Moivreux (seven miles west of Cambrai), while slightly south of this line they have fought their way back into the old defensive positions they held prior to the German drive last March. A fortified farm was taken by the British northwest of St. Quentin. The French captured Esenye-le-Grand, on the Chauny-St. Quentin road, and have extended their gains north of the Aisne river.

Between the Ailette and Aisne rivers, where the French have been advancing steadily in their "pincer movement" against the Chemin-des-Dames, the Germans delivered five counter assaults, but all of them were beaten off. The French went back, leaving the field covered with heaps of their dead and wounded.

On the Vesle river, where Americans are fighting, the Germans attempted to force their way across the stream at Jochery, but were hurled back.

There is strong patrol activity on the Meuse-Moselle front, where the Americans are driving in the direction of Metz.

American artillery is extremely busy in that sector, keeping the German communications and Metz under a devastating fire.

Two attacks were attempted by the Germans and Austrians against American positions west and southwest of Metz last night and today, but both were smashed by the vicious barrages of artillery fire put down by the Americans' guns.

On the Balkan front, where the allies are biting deep into the Bulgarian front in southern Serbia, the advance now extends over twenty miles and the French and Serbs are within nine miles of Priepolje. The Bulgarians were attacked over a front of about eighty miles and were completely routed. The Bulgarian retreat was carried out in mountains with the greatest disorder.

May Bar Christmas Packages for Christmas

Washington, Sept. 20.—Christmas packages for the boys in the trenches probably will be barred by the war and post-office departments.

Although no formal ruling has yet been made, indications today were that in the near future, an official order will be issued, under the conditions that have led up to this decision. It was made plain by officials today that both departments are anxious to see some Christmas packages which relatives and friends of soldiers in France may send the multitude packages, and said such depend entirely upon the shipping conditions prevailing during the few weeks preceding the holiday season. At the same time, however, they held out little hope that it would be possible to change the tentative decision that the boys will have to forego substantial remittances from home.

WAITS RESULT OF CONTEST.

Carl Vinson Declines Nomination Until Committee Acts.

Milledgeville, Ga., Sept. 20.—Because of charges of fraud filed in a decision on the contest and asked congressional district, Carl Vinson, winner on the face of the returns, refused to accept the nomination for congress until the committee renders a decision on the contest and asked the committee to meet again Oct. 20 to declare the nominee.

Thomas E. Watson, opponent of Congressman Vinson in the recent primary, has filed notice of protest covering three counties of the district, Wilkinson, Taliaferro and Columbia, charging irregularities and fraud. The committee reported the suggestion of Congressman Vinson and adjourned to Oct. 10.

MANGIN'S ARMY PROGRESSES.

Evacuation of Chemin-des-Dames Seems Imminent.

Paris, Sept. 20.—The evacuation of the high ground of the Chemin-des-Dames by the Germans is believed today to be imminent as a result of the remorseless pressure of Gen. Mangin's army.

The German press has already paved the way for acknowledgment of another retreat in that zone by laying down the statement that the Chemin-des-Dames is not part of the Siegfried or Hindenburg line.

The Germans counter attacked west of Juicy (on the Aisne front), but were completely repulsed.

Despite stubborn resistance the French have made further progress in the Franco-British "pincer drive" on St. Quentin.

INFLUENZA PREVAILS IN EPIDEMIC FORM.

Death Rate Continues Low Among Soldiers in Camp.

Washington, Sept. 20.—Extensive epidemics of influenza have been reported from Camp Upton, Camp Dix, New Jersey, and Camp Lee, Virginia, and the disease may be expected to appear in other camps soon, according to the weekly reports of Surgeon-General Gorgas, made public by the war department today.

The epidemic reported for the week ending Sept. 13, so, therefore, does not reveal the extent of the influenza epidemic, which started a week ago.

The admission rate for disease was slightly higher than for the preceding week, while the nonfatal rate showed a decrease from 34.1 to 35.1. The death rate continued low at 2.31.

New cases covered by the report numbered as follows:

Pneumonia, 332, a decrease of 1; measles, 67, a decrease of 83; meningitis, 12, a decrease of 2, and malaria, 208, an increase of 53.

HUNS PRAY GOD TO RESURRECT BISMARCK

Amsterdam, (N. E. A.)—The extent to which Germany has been frightened by the recent allied victories is shown by this extract from the Reichsbote, organ of the state church party and mouthpiece of the German emperors: "German nation, go into your churches and pray to your God to be merciful. Beseech Him to endow your Kaiser with the power to awaken Bismarck from the dead to rescue his people."

WINNERS OF VICTORIA CROSS ALSO WIN THEATER PASSES

London, (N. E. A.)—Life passes made of gold to the string of theaters and music halls controlled by Sir Alfred Butt, will be granted to all men who have won the Victoria Cross. Sir Alfred announces. Sir Alfred is an Australian. He controls eight houses in London and Paris. The passes will include the V. C.'s families.

PASSAGE OF WAR REVENUE BILL SEEMS AVOIDED.

Only Few Noncontroversial Provisions Remain to Be Disposed Of.

Washington, Sept. 20.—Passage by the house of the bill revenue bill under which it is estimated that between $5,000,000,000 and $5,000,000,000 can be raised by taxation, was regarded as certain when that body reconvened.

Reading of the 100 pages of the voluminous measure was completed late yesterday afternoon, and only a few provisions which are described as "noncontroversial" are yet to be disposed of. These include taxes on gas and oil.

BOYS USE ROLLER SKATES TO BEAT GASLESS SUNDAY

Shelbytown, (N. E. A.)—When their parents refused to take them auto riding on Sunday because of the "gasless" edict, five youngsters of this city strapped on their roller skates and made the trip to Shelbytown Falls that way. A pavement of cement covers the entire route between the two places. Now results are being followed closely by the police.

RETAIN HOLD ON EPEHY

Berlin Reports Stubborn Defense Gouzeaucourt.

Berlin (via London), Sept. 19.—The official communication from headquarters this evening says:

"On yesterday's battle front between Havincourt wood and the Somme the British limited themselves to violent partial attacks, which were repulsed everywhere."

Threat of Blacchoote cleared a portion of the trenches which remained to the enemy in the fighting of Sept. 9. The British, however, have been repulsed in the Mouveux and Havincourt sectors there was strong artillery fighting. In local attacks here we made prisoners.

"Repulsed the British." "On the sector from the forest of Havincourt as far as the Somme the British repulsed the enemy's attacks. Attacks directed north of Gouzeaucourt and against the British were repulsed. A German Jaeger regiment stubbornly defended Gouzeaucourt. Between Gouzeaucourt and Havincourt the British, who stormed forward several times with strong forces and armored cars. After a fruitless fight, the British were repulsed in their hands. In the evening the enemy repeated his attacks on the whole of this front, but was repulsed everywhere."

"Between Hargicourt and Pontreux the Australians penetrated our positions. Attacks directed north of Gouzeaucourt and against the British were repulsed. A German Jaeger regiment stubbornly defended Gouzeaucourt. Between Gouzeaucourt and Havincourt the British, who stormed forward several times with strong forces and armored cars. After a fruitless fight, the British were repulsed in their hands. In the evening the enemy repeated his attacks on the whole of this front, but was repulsed everywhere."

"Between the Oulgnon rivulet and the Somme, English troops attacked in cooperation with the French. Using strong forces they attempted to break through our lines at St. Quentin and north of that town. The engagements, which lasted until the evening, resulted in a complete failure of the enemy. In vigorous fighting the enemy was driven back to the positions from which he started. The British and the French repulsed the enemy's attacks. A German Jaeger regiment stubbornly defended Gouzeaucourt. Between Gouzeaucourt and Havincourt the British, who stormed forward several times with strong forces and armored cars. After a fruitless fight, the British were repulsed in their hands. In the evening the enemy repeated his attacks on the whole of this front, but was repulsed everywhere."

"Between the Oulgnon rivulet and the Somme, English troops attacked in cooperation with the French. Using strong forces they attempted to break through our lines at St. Quentin and north of that town. The engagements, which lasted until the evening, resulted in a complete failure of the enemy. In vigorous fighting the enemy was driven back to the positions from which he started. The British and the French repulsed the enemy's attacks. A German Jaeger regiment stubbornly defended Gouzeaucourt. Between Gouzeaucourt and Havincourt the British, who stormed forward several times with strong forces and armored cars. After a fruitless fight, the British were repulsed in their hands. In the evening the enemy repeated his attacks on the whole of this front, but was repulsed everywhere."

"Between the Oulgnon rivulet and the Somme, English troops attacked in cooperation with the French. Using strong forces they attempted to break through our lines at St. Quentin and north of that town. The engagements, which lasted until the evening, resulted in a complete failure of the enemy. In vigorous fighting the enemy was driven back to the positions from which he started. The British and the French repulsed the enemy's attacks. A German Jaeger regiment stubbornly defended Gouzeaucourt. Between Gouzeaucourt and Havincourt the British, who stormed forward several times with strong forces and armored cars. After a fruitless fight, the British were repulsed in their hands. In the evening the enemy repeated his attacks on the whole of this front, but was repulsed everywhere."

"Between the Oulgnon rivulet and the Somme, English troops attacked in cooperation with the French. Using strong forces they attempted to break through our lines at St. Quentin and north of that town. The engagements, which lasted until the evening, resulted in a complete failure of the enemy. In vigorous fighting the enemy was driven back to the positions from which he started. The British and the French repulsed the enemy's attacks. A German Jaeger regiment stubbornly defended Gouzeaucourt. Between Gouzeaucourt and Havincourt the British, who stormed forward several times with strong forces and armored cars. After a fruitless fight, the British were repulsed in their hands. In the evening the enemy repeated his attacks on the whole of this front, but was repulsed everywhere."

"Between the Oulgnon rivulet and the Somme, English troops attacked in cooperation with the French. Using strong forces they attempted to break through our lines at St. Quentin and north of that town. The engagements, which lasted until the evening, resulted in a complete failure of the enemy. In vigorous fighting the enemy was driven back to the positions from which he started. The British and the French repulsed the enemy's attacks. A German Jaeger regiment stubbornly defended Gouzeaucourt. Between Gouzeaucourt and Havincourt the British, who stormed forward several times with strong forces and armored cars. After a fruitless fight, the British were repulsed in their hands. In the evening the enemy repeated his attacks on the whole of this front, but was repulsed everywhere."

"Between the Oulgnon rivulet and the Somme, English troops attacked in cooperation with the French. Using strong forces they attempted to break through our lines at St. Quentin and north of that town. The engagements, which lasted until the evening, resulted in a complete failure of the enemy. In vigorous fighting the enemy was driven back to the positions from which he started. The British and the French repulsed the enemy's attacks. A German Jaeger regiment stubbornly defended Gouzeaucourt. Between Gouzeaucourt and Havincourt the British, who stormed forward several times with strong forces and armored cars. After a fruitless fight, the British were repulsed in their hands. In the evening the enemy repeated his attacks on the whole of this front, but was repulsed everywhere."

"Between the Oulgnon rivulet and the Somme, English troops attacked in cooperation with the French. Using strong forces they attempted to break through our lines at St. Quentin and north of that town. The engagements, which lasted until the evening, resulted in a complete failure of the enemy. In vigorous fighting the enemy was driven back to the positions from which he started. The British and the French repulsed the enemy's attacks. A German Jaeger regiment stubbornly defended Gouzeaucourt. Between Gouzeaucourt and Havincourt the British, who stormed forward several times with strong forces and armored cars. After a fruitless fight, the British were repulsed in their hands. In the evening the enemy repeated his attacks on the whole of this front, but was repulsed everywhere."

"Between the Oulgnon rivulet and the Somme, English troops attacked in cooperation with the French. Using strong forces they attempted to break through our lines at St. Quentin and north of that town. The engagements, which lasted until the evening, resulted in a complete failure of the enemy. In vigorous fighting the enemy was driven back to the positions from which he started. The British and the French repulsed the enemy's attacks. A German Jaeger regiment stubbornly defended Gouzeaucourt. Between Gouzeaucourt and Havincourt the British, who stormed forward several times with strong forces and armored cars. After a fruitless fight, the British were repulsed in their hands. In the evening the enemy repeated his attacks on the whole of this front, but was repulsed everywhere."

"Between the Oulgnon rivulet and the Somme, English troops attacked in cooperation with the French. Using strong forces they attempted to break through our lines at St. Quentin and north of that town. The engagements, which lasted until the evening, resulted in a complete failure of the enemy. In vigorous fighting the enemy was driven back to the positions from which he started. The British and the French repulsed the enemy's attacks. A German Jaeger regiment stubbornly defended Gouzeaucourt. Between Gouzeaucourt and Havincourt the British, who stormed forward several times with strong forces and armored cars. After a fruitless fight, the British were repulsed in their hands. In the evening the enemy repeated his attacks on the whole of this front, but was repulsed everywhere."

"Between the Oulgnon rivulet and the Somme, English troops attacked in cooperation with the French. Using strong forces they attempted to break through our lines at St. Quentin and north of that town. The engagements, which lasted until the evening, resulted in a complete failure of the enemy. In vigorous fighting the enemy was driven back to the positions from which he started. The British and the French repulsed the enemy's attacks. A German Jaeger regiment stubbornly defended Gouzeaucourt. Between Gouzeaucourt and Havincourt the British, who stormed forward several times with strong forces and armored cars. After a fruitless fight, the British were repulsed in their hands. In the evening the enemy repeated his attacks on the whole of this front, but was repulsed everywhere."

"Between the Oulgnon rivulet and the Somme, English troops attacked in cooperation with the French. Using strong forces they attempted to break through our lines at St. Quentin and north of that town. The engagements, which lasted until the evening, resulted in a complete failure of the enemy. In vigorous fighting the enemy was driven back to the positions from which he started. The British and the French repulsed the enemy's attacks. A German Jaeger regiment stubbornly defended Gouzeaucourt. Between Gouzeaucourt and Havincourt the British, who stormed forward several times with strong forces and armored cars. After a fruitless fight, the British were repulsed in their hands. In the evening the enemy repeated his attacks on the whole of this front, but was repulsed everywhere."

"Between the Oulgnon rivulet and the Somme, English troops attacked in cooperation with the French. Using strong forces they attempted to break through our lines at St. Quentin and north of that town. The engagements, which lasted until the evening, resulted in a complete failure of the enemy. In vigorous fighting the enemy was driven back to the positions from which he started. The British and the French repulsed the enemy's attacks. A German Jaeger regiment stubbornly defended Gouzeaucourt. Between Gouzeaucourt and Havincourt the British, who stormed forward several times with strong forces and armored cars. After a fruitless fight, the British were repulsed in their hands. In the evening the enemy repeated his attacks on the whole of this front, but was repulsed everywhere."

"Between the Oulgnon rivulet and the Somme, English troops attacked in cooperation with the French. Using strong forces they attempted to break through our lines at St. Quentin and north of that town. The engagements, which lasted until the evening, resulted in a complete failure of the enemy. In vigorous fighting the enemy was driven back to the positions from which he started. The British and the French repulsed the enemy's attacks. A German Jaeger regiment stubbornly defended Gouzeaucourt. Between Gouzeaucourt and Havincourt the British, who stormed forward several times with strong forces and armored cars. After a fruitless fight, the British were repulsed in their hands. In the evening the enemy repeated his attacks on the whole of this front, but was repulsed everywhere."

"Between the Oulgnon rivulet and the Somme, English troops attacked in cooperation with the French. Using strong forces they attempted to break through our lines at St. Quentin and north of that town. The engagements, which lasted until the evening, resulted in a complete failure of the enemy. In vigorous fighting the enemy was driven back to the positions from which he started. The British and the French repulsed the enemy's attacks. A German Jaeger regiment stubbornly defended Gouzeaucourt. Between Gouzeaucourt and Havincourt the British, who stormed forward several times with strong forces and armored cars. After a fruitless fight, the British were repulsed in their hands. In the evening the enemy repeated his attacks on the whole of this front, but was repulsed everywhere."

"Between the Oulgnon rivulet and the Somme, English troops attacked in cooperation with the French. Using strong forces they attempted to break through our lines at St. Quentin and north of that town. The engagements, which lasted until the evening, resulted in a complete failure of the enemy. In vigorous fighting the enemy was driven back to the positions from which he started. The British and the French repulsed the enemy's attacks. A German Jaeger regiment stubbornly defended Gouzeaucourt. Between Gouzeaucourt and Havincourt the British, who stormed forward several times with strong forces and armored cars. After a fruitless fight, the British were repulsed in their hands. In the evening the enemy repeated his attacks on the whole of this front, but was repulsed everywhere."

"Between the Oulgnon rivulet and the Somme, English troops attacked in cooperation with the French. Using strong forces they attempted to break through our lines at St. Quentin and north of that town. The engagements, which lasted until the evening, resulted in a complete failure of the enemy. In vigorous fighting the enemy was driven back to the positions from which he started. The British and the French repulsed the enemy's attacks. A German Jaeger regiment stubbornly defended Gouzeaucourt. Between Gouzeaucourt and Havincourt the British, who stormed forward several times with strong forces and armored cars. After a fruitless fight, the British were repulsed in their hands. In the evening the enemy repeated his attacks on the whole of this front, but was repulsed everywhere."

"Between the Oulgnon rivulet and the Somme, English troops attacked in cooperation with the French. Using strong forces they attempted to break through our lines at St. Quentin and north of that town. The engagements, which lasted until the evening, resulted in a complete failure of the enemy. In vigorous fighting the enemy was driven back to the positions from which he started. The British and the French repulsed the enemy's attacks. A German Jaeger regiment stubbornly defended Gouzeaucourt. Between Gouzeaucourt and Havincourt the British, who stormed forward several times with strong forces and armored cars. After a fruitless fight, the British were repulsed in their hands. In the evening the enemy repeated his attacks on the whole of this front, but was repulsed everywhere."

"Between the Oulgnon rivulet and the Somme, English troops attacked in cooperation with the French. Using strong forces they attempted to break through our lines at St. Quentin and north of that town. The engagements, which lasted until the evening, resulted in a complete failure of the enemy. In vigorous fighting the enemy was driven back to the positions from which he started. The British and the French repulsed the enemy's attacks. A German Jaeger regiment stubbornly defended Gouzeaucourt. Between Gouzeaucourt and Havincourt the British, who stormed forward several times with strong forces and armored cars. After a fruitless fight, the British were repulsed in their hands. In the evening the enemy repeated his attacks on the whole of this front, but was repulsed everywhere."

"Between the Oulgnon rivulet and the Somme, English troops attacked in cooperation with the French. Using strong forces they attempted to break through our lines at St. Quentin and north of that town. The engagements, which lasted until the evening, resulted in a complete failure of the enemy. In vigorous fighting the enemy was driven back to the positions from which he started. The British and the French repulsed the enemy's attacks. A German Jaeger regiment stubbornly defended Gouzeaucourt. Between Gouzeaucourt and Havincourt the British, who stormed forward several times with strong forces and armored cars. After a fruitless fight, the British were repulsed in their hands. In the evening the enemy repeated his attacks on the whole of this front, but was repulsed everywhere."

"Between the Oulgnon rivulet and the Somme, English troops attacked in cooperation with the French. Using strong forces they attempted to break through our lines at St. Quentin and north of that town. The engagements, which lasted until the evening, resulted in a complete failure of the enemy. In vigorous fighting the enemy was driven back to the positions from which he started. The British and the French repulsed the enemy's attacks. A German Jaeger regiment stubbornly defended Gouzeaucourt. Between Gouzeaucourt and Havincourt the British, who stormed forward several times with strong forces and armored cars. After a fruitless fight, the British were repulsed in their hands. In the evening the enemy repeated his attacks on the whole of this front, but was repulsed everywhere."

"Between the Oulgnon rivulet and the Somme, English troops attacked in cooperation with the French. Using strong forces they attempted to break through our lines at St. Quentin and north of that town. The engagements, which lasted until the evening, resulted in a complete failure of the enemy. In vigorous fighting the enemy was driven back to the positions from which he started. The British and the French repulsed the enemy's attacks. A German Jaeger regiment stubbornly defended Gouzeaucourt. Between Gouzeaucourt and Havincourt the British, who stormed forward several times with strong forces and armored cars. After a fruitless fight, the British were repulsed in their hands. In the evening the enemy repeated his attacks on the whole of this front, but was repulsed everywhere."

"Between the Oulgnon rivulet and the Somme, English troops attacked in cooperation with the French. Using strong forces they attempted to break through our lines at St. Quentin and north of that town. The engagements, which lasted until the evening, resulted in a complete failure of the enemy. In vigorous fighting the enemy was driven back to the positions from which he started. The British and the French repulsed the enemy's attacks. A German Jaeger regiment stubbornly defended Gouzeaucourt. Between Gouzeaucourt and Havincourt the British, who stormed forward several times with strong forces and armored cars. After a fruitless fight, the British were repulsed in their hands. In the evening the enemy repeated his attacks on the whole of this front, but was repulsed everywhere."

"Between the Oulgnon rivulet and the Somme, English troops attacked in cooperation with the French. Using strong forces they attempted to break through our lines at St. Quentin and north of that town. The engagements, which lasted until the evening, resulted in a complete failure of the enemy. In vigorous fighting the enemy was driven back to the positions from which he started. The British and the French repulsed the enemy's attacks. A German Jaeger regiment stubbornly defended Gouzeaucourt. Between Gouzeaucourt and Havincourt the British, who stormed forward several times with strong forces and armored cars. After a fruitless fight, the British were repulsed in their hands. In the evening the enemy repeated his attacks on the whole of this front, but was repulsed everywhere."

"Between the Oulgnon rivulet and the Somme, English troops attacked in cooperation with the French. Using strong forces they attempted to break through our lines at St. Quentin and north of that town. The engagements, which lasted until the evening, resulted in a complete failure of the enemy. In vigorous fighting the enemy was driven back to the positions from which he started. The British and the French repulsed the enemy's attacks. A German Jaeger regiment stubbornly defended Gouzeaucourt. Between Gouzeaucourt and Havincourt the British, who stormed forward several times with strong forces and armored cars. After a fruitless fight, the British were repulsed in their hands. In the evening the enemy repeated his attacks on the whole of this front, but was repulsed everywhere."

"Between the Oulgnon rivulet and the Somme, English troops attacked in cooperation with the French. Using strong forces they attempted to break through our lines at St. Quentin and north of that town. The engagements, which lasted until the evening, resulted in a complete failure of the enemy. In vigorous fighting the enemy was driven back to the positions from which he started. The British and the French repulsed the enemy's attacks. A German Jaeger regiment stubbornly defended Gouzeaucourt. Between Gouzeaucourt and Havincourt the British, who stormed forward several times with strong forces and armored cars. After a fruitless fight, the British were repulsed in their hands. In the evening the enemy repeated his attacks on the whole of this front, but was repulsed everywhere."

"Between the Oulgnon rivulet and the Somme, English troops attacked in cooperation with the French. Using strong forces they attempted to break through our lines at St. Quentin and north of that town. The engagements, which lasted until the evening, resulted in a complete failure of the enemy. In vigorous fighting the enemy was driven back to the positions from which he started. The British and the French repulsed the enemy's attacks. A German Jaeger regiment stubbornly defended Gouzeaucourt. Between Gouzeaucourt and Havincourt the British, who stormed forward several times with strong forces and armored cars. After a fruitless fight, the British were repulsed in their hands. In the evening the enemy repeated his attacks on the whole of this front, but was repulsed everywhere."

"Between the Oulgnon rivulet and the Somme, English troops attacked in cooperation with the French. Using strong forces they attempted to break through our lines at St. Quentin and north of that town. The engagements, which lasted until the evening, resulted in a complete failure of the enemy. In vigorous fighting the enemy was driven back to the positions from which he started. The British and the French repulsed the enemy's attacks. A German Jaeger regiment stubbornly defended Gouzeaucourt. Between Gouzeaucourt and Havincourt the British, who stormed forward several times with strong forces and armored cars. After a fruitless fight, the British were repulsed in their hands. In the evening the enemy repeated his attacks on the whole of this front, but was repulsed everywhere."

"Between the Oulgnon rivulet and the Somme, English troops attacked in cooperation with the French. Using strong forces they attempted to break through our lines at St. Quentin and north of that town. The engagements, which lasted until the evening, resulted in a complete failure of the enemy. In vigorous fighting the enemy was driven back to the positions from which he started. The British and the French repulsed the enemy's attacks. A German Jaeger regiment stubbornly defended Gouzeaucourt. Between Gouzeaucourt and Havincourt the British, who stormed forward several times with strong forces and armored cars. After a fruitless fight, the British were repulsed in their hands. In the evening the enemy repeated his attacks on the whole of this front, but was repulsed everywhere."

"Between the Oulgnon rivulet and the Somme, English troops attacked in cooperation with the French. Using strong forces they attempted to break through our lines at St. Quentin and north of that town. The engagements, which lasted until the evening, resulted in a complete failure of the enemy. In vigorous fighting the enemy was driven back to the positions from which he started. The British and the French repulsed the enemy's attacks. A German Jaeger regiment stubbornly defended Gouzeaucourt. Between Gouzeaucourt and Havincourt the British, who stormed forward several times with strong forces and armored cars. After a fruitless fight, the British were repulsed in their hands. In the evening the enemy repeated his attacks on the whole of this front, but was repulsed everywhere."

"Between the Oulgnon rivulet and the Somme, English troops attacked in cooperation with the French. Using strong forces they attempted to break through our lines at St. Quentin and north of that town. The engagements, which lasted until the evening, resulted in a complete failure of the enemy. In vigorous fighting the enemy was driven back to the positions from which he started. The British and the French repulsed the enemy's attacks. A German Jaeger regiment stubbornly defended Gouzeaucourt. Between Gouzeaucourt and Havincourt the British, who stormed forward several times with strong forces and armored cars. After a fruitless fight, the British were repulsed in their hands. In the evening the enemy repeated his attacks on the whole of this front, but was repulsed everywhere."

"Between the Oulgnon rivulet and the Somme, English troops attacked in cooperation with the French. Using strong forces they attempted to break through our lines at St. Quentin and north of that town. The engagements, which lasted until the evening, resulted in a complete failure of the enemy. In vigorous fighting the enemy was driven back to the positions from which he started. The British and the French repulsed the enemy's attacks. A German Jaeger regiment stubbornly defended Gouzeaucourt. Between Gouzeaucourt and Havincourt the British, who stormed forward several times with strong forces and armored cars. After a fruitless fight, the British were repulsed in their hands. In the evening the enemy repeated his attacks on the whole of this front, but was repulsed everywhere."

"Between the Oulgnon rivulet and the Somme, English troops attacked in cooperation with the French. Using strong forces they attempted to break through our lines at St. Quentin and north of that town. The engagements, which lasted until the evening, resulted in a complete failure of the enemy. In vigorous fighting the enemy was driven back to the positions from which he started. The British and the French repulsed the enemy's attacks. A German Jaeger regiment stubbornly defended Gouzeaucourt. Between Gouzeaucourt and Havincourt the British, who stormed forward several times with strong forces and armored cars. After a fruitless fight, the British were repulsed in their hands. In the evening the enemy repeated his attacks on the whole of this front, but was repulsed everywhere."

"Between the Oulgnon rivulet and the Somme, English troops attacked in cooperation with the French. Using strong forces they attempted to break through our lines at St. Quentin and north of that town. The engagements, which lasted until the evening, resulted in a complete failure of the enemy. In vigorous fighting the enemy was driven back to the positions from which he started. The British and the French repulsed the enemy's attacks. A German Jaeger regiment stubbornly defended Gouzeaucourt. Between Gouzeaucourt and Havincourt the British, who stormed forward several times with strong forces and armored cars. After a fruitless fight, the British were repulsed in their hands. In the evening the enemy repeated his attacks on the whole of this front, but was repulsed everywhere."

"Between the Oulgnon rivulet and the Somme, English troops attacked in cooperation with the French. Using strong forces they attempted to break through our lines at St. Quentin and north of that town. The engagements, which lasted until the evening, resulted in a complete failure of the enemy. In vigorous fighting the enemy was driven back to the positions from which he started. The British and the French repulsed the enemy's attacks. A German Jaeger regiment stubbornly defended Gouzeaucourt. Between Gouzeaucourt and Havincourt the British, who stormed forward several times with strong forces and armored cars. After a fruitless fight, the British were repulsed in their hands. In the evening the enemy repeated his attacks on the whole of this front, but was repulsed everywhere."

"Between the Oulgnon rivulet and the Somme, English troops attacked in cooperation with the French. Using strong forces they attempted to break through our lines at St. Quentin and north of that town. The engagements, which lasted until the evening, resulted in a